CANDIDATE'S OWN WORDS

Describe yourself: I am a responsible and positive person who aims for success and enjoys working with others. I am flexible with different tasks and can work well with all types of people. I always focus on doing my work properly and with high quality. I have experience in veterinary medicine, farm management, animal care, first aid for animals, and assisting with medicines and births.

Why do you want to work on a farm? I want to work on a farm in Denmark because I already have farm experience in Denmark, I speak Danish, and I have lived there before. I feel comfortable in this environment and want to continue working in a place where I can use my skills and experience effectively.
